Orson Thompson, 9 years old and deaf and dumb, started for school Wednesday morning and went with some boys fishing instead. On Wednesday boys fishing instead. On Wednesday night he was seen at the extreme south of Second West Street, at 7 o'clock. The last seen of him he was walking along the bank of the canal on 'first West Street, below the adobe yard. Parties who saw him in that vicinity concluded from his actions that he was lost, and told him to go home, but being bewildered he lost his way and no trace of him has yet been found by his griefsticken parents, who fear that he may have fallen into the canal. J. M. Thompson, the father, lives at 535 S. Second West Street, where any information concerning the boy may be left, and it will be gratefully received.
